

You can use your compost mixture in potted house plants.

Donate compost to local farms, community gardens, or school garden projects.

Give your compost away to gardening friends, find someone online, or see if there is a local compost sharing group

Find out if your city or if a local organization has a composting pick up service,

Renegade neighborhood composting! Sprinkle it into public planters and parks.

What to do with your compost or scraps if you don't have a garden